St. Luke's Orthopedic Care is pleased to welcome Primary Care Sports Medicine Specialist, Dr. Daniel A. Cohen. Dr. Cohen attended the American University of the Caribbean, completed his residency at Inspira Health Network and his fellowship at our very own St. Luke's University Health Network in Primary Care Sports Medicine.

A former wrestler himself, Dr. Cohen was inspired to practice the field of sports medicine, feeling that keeping active at any age is important physically as well as mentally. Dr. Cohen hopes to guide his athletes and patients, novice or veteran, to safely stay at peak performance.

Treats: Non-surgical sports injuries and concussions
